133/2017	School Keep Clear Marking Consultation In April 2016, Department for Transport legislation came into force to enable local authorities to make School Keep Clear markings mandatory. This requires the installation of signage and the correct lining. At the same time it is proposed to create a Traffic Regulation Order to prohibit vehicles stopping or waiting on the school keep clear markings At Any Time. This will enable Cornwall Council's Civil Parking Enforcement team to carry out enforcement where resources permit. Cornwall Council is running a consultation on this that will affect parts of Hartmeade. The Chair will run an informal and open discussion to canvass the opinions of residents before making a formal response to the consultation which ends on November 17 2017.
